

First Things First First Things First

To get started, the first thing to do is to read the instructions on the next page and fill out the participation form below. Once the information is complete and has been signed by your parent, remove this page (be sure to keep the instructions), and mail it to me as soon as possible. Or, you may register online at <http://www.city-buffalo.com/ReadingRules>, and click on 2010 Summer Reading Challenge.

Make sure you register by July 2, 2010 and as soon as you do . . . START READING!!!!

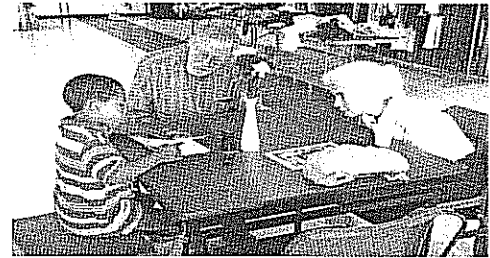

Dear Readers,

I am happy to inform you that we will continue our inter-generational component of the Summer Reading Challenge, which is the Senior's Reading Corner. Participants will read to senior citizens at senior centers and nursing homes throughout the City of Buffalo. This program is a great opportunity for our young people to show off their reading skills to seniors while providing community service and enhancing their academic skills. The young readers who participate in the Senior's Reading Corner will receive special recognition at our awards ceremony. To participate please check YES on your Summer Reading Challenge Application and we will forward instructions to you upon receipt. Thank you for making our Summer Reading Challenge the best and the biggest in New York State!

Sincerely,

Byron W. Brown
